ORDER

This matter is before the court on the status report of the parties, Filing No. 104. The court is advised that the parties have resolved all pending matters, including the payment of attorney fees and costs. Id. This court earlier declared Article I, § 29 of the Nebraska Constitution unconstitutional in light of Obergefell v. Hodges, 135 S. Ct. 2584 (2015) and granted the plaintiffs a permanent injunction. Filing No. 96, Memorandum and Order at 12-13; Filing No. 97, Permanent Injunction. With respect to the then-remaining issue of birth certificates, the court stated that it was of the opinion that the State, following the entry of the final injunction, would address the issue and “[i]f that issue is not addressed to the plaintiffs' satisfaction, the Court will retain jurisdiction over any claims that arise out of this lawsuit and the permanent injunction, the Obergefell case, and the right to marry the person of your choosing and rights incident to the right to marry as they relate to this lawsuit." Filing No. 96, Memorandum and order at 11-12. It appears the issue has been resolved to the plaintiffs' satisfaction.

Having been advised that all pending matters, including attorney fees and costs, have been resolved the court finds, for docket control purposes, this action can be closed. Of course, the court automatically retains jurisdiction to enforce its injunction, should any future problems arise. See id. at 11 n.3. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Clerk of Court is directed to close this case.

Dated this 14th day of June, 2016
